Arts in the Park features entertainment, arts and crafts, kidzone

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (September 4, 2013) –Enjoy a day of performances ranging from vocal to dramatic at Arts in the Park on Saturday, September 14, 2013, from 2 to 6 p.m. at The Lodge at Rob Fleming Park, 6055 Creekside Forest Drive, 77389. This community event is FREE and has everything from entertainment, including local theatre and community group performances, to a kidzone, where kids can explore their creative side!

The Fall 2013 theme is Trip Around the World featuring entertainment, crafts and visuals inspired from a variety of cultures around the world. Local artisans will be on-site exhibiting their handmade art including woodwork, painting, crafts, jewelry, kids clothing, toys and more. Attendees are able to purchase fine and original work produced by these local artists. Concessions are also available for a fee.

The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation Department promotes and encourages arts and humanities through class offerings throughout the year. The Arts in the Park program is a culmination of this program as it allows multiple avenues of the arts in one festival-like setting. Visit our Web site at www.thewoodlandstownship-tx.gov to view the current Action Guide for all programs and activities or call 281-210-3800 for more information.
