Media Advisory For Immediate Release

UPDATE:

Detectives from the Major Crimes Unit have arrested two persons in connection with the August 31st Aggravated Robbery at the Wendy's fast food restaurant in The Woodlands. Detectives have arrested Aaron James Hashaw W/M Dob: 07-25-1989 of Spring Texas and Heather Luv Boggs W/F Dob: 02-28-1972 of Montgomery Texas. Both of the above listed suspects were employees of the Wendy's Restaurant and were on duty at the time of the robbery. Detectives have learned through interviews that the 2 employees conspired with a third party to commit the Robbery while the 2 suspects were on duty and that they facilitated the robbery by supplying the third suspect with information about the store and procedures. The suspect(s) who committed robbery have not been positively identified and the investigation is ongoing by Detectives.

Anyone with information is urged to contact the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office Major Crimes Unit at 936-760-5876 or the Montgomery County Crime Stoppers at 1-800-392-7867 (STOP)

Major Crimes Unit

On August 30, 2010, at approximately 10:05 PM District 6 patrol deputies in The Woodlands were dispatched to a robbery at the Wendy's Restaurant located at 6670 Woodlands Parkway. When deputies arrived witnesses told them that white or Hispanic male wearing a "dark hoodie" and a bandana over his face entered the restaurant through a side door with a handgun and ordered all employees to go behind the counter.

An undisclosed amount of money was taken. No one was injured and a suspect has not been identified or arrested. Witnesses saw the suspect run to a waiting nondescript car and get into the passenger side.
