Registration is now open for all three signature races

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (January 14, 2013) – The Woodlands Township is proud to announce that registration is now open for its 2013 race series, which includes the Muddy Trails Bash, 10th Annual CB&I TRI – The Woodlands triathlon and 10 for Texas. Every race will be capped to ensure the safety of participants. All races are expected to reach capacity; register now at www.thewoodlandstownship-tx.gov/races to reserve a spot.

Muddy Trails Bash is held on first Saturday in April (April 6, 2013) and features a chip-timed 10K and 5K, as well as a Little Muddy Kids' One Mile Fun Run and a 2K-9 Fun Run for those with dogs. All runs take place on the trails of the beautiful George Mitchell Nature Preserve in the Village of Creekside Park. The post-race party includes live zydeco and Cajun music, plates of crawfish and other concessions, as well as a kid zone.

The CB&I TRI – The Woodlands triathlon is held on the first Saturday in May (May 4, 2013) and is one of the premier multi-sport events in the region. This year will mark the USA Triathlon (USAT)-sanctioned event's 10th anniversary, and will feature a field of more than 1,100 athletes of all different levels. The triathlon is composed of a 500 meter open-water swim in Lake Woodlands, a 15-mile bike course, and a 5K run. The triathlon culminates with a festive awards party featuring live music and food.

The 10 for Texas is held on the second Saturday of October (October 12, 2013) and consists of a 10-mile chip-timed race, as well as the One 4 Texas Kids' Fun Run and a Texas-sized post-race party!
