Gorilla Hole to host big end of summer pool party

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (August 8, 2014) – Incoming fifth- and sixth-grade students are invited to a giant end of summer pool party event on August 15, 2014. The event will take place at The Woodlands Recreation Center and Bear Branch Pool, 5310 Research Forest Drive. The $7 admission fee includes games, dancing, dodgeball, after-hours pool access and more, with a variety of concessions available for $1 to $2. Raising Canes will also be donating special drinks and prizes.

Students are encouraged not to miss out on the fun. Gorilla Hole is a highly staffed and well-organized environment for fifth- and sixth-graders to monkey around and have fun. Held on Friday evenings, Gorilla Hole allows kids to make new friends and memories in no time while playing dodgeball, basketball and dancing.
