Township launches Parks and Recreation Facebook page

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (March 28, 2017) – The Woodlands Township recognizes the value of connecting with residents, businesses, and visitors through a variety of platforms and continues to expand the methods with which the public can receive information and notices.

The Township’s Parks and Recreation Department has officially launched a Facebook page (/townshipparksandrec) to efficiently and effectively provide information to community members regarding the various recreational and environmental services provided by The Woodlands Township.

Page followers can explore Township parks and facilities, stay up to date with community events, learn valuable environmental tips and resources and find details on the hundreds of recreation programs coordinated by the Township throughout the year. To follow the page, please visit www.facebook.com/townshipparksandrec.

“We are excited to be able to communicate our services, programs and events through this medium. Facebook is a great way to stay in touch with our residents,” said Chris Nunes, Township Director of Parks and Recreation.

Residents and visitors to The Woodlands are also reminded to follow the official social media accounts for The Woodlands Township on Facebook (/TheWoodlandsTownship) and on Instagram and Twitter (@TheTownshipTX) for important news alerts as well as information on upcoming events and the recent activities of the Township and its Board of Directors.
