

NEWS RELEASE

For media inquiries, contact: Nick Wolda
nwolda@thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov

Township launches first Rocket League e-Sports tournament

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (September 15, 2020) –The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation Department is proud to announce the kickoff of its first eSports tournament. eSports is an organized, multiplayer video game competition, and those brand new to eSports and experienced gamers alike will find a spot in The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation’s brand new 2V2 Rocket League tournament series. Every month there will be chances to compete against like gamers of ALL ages from surrounding areas.

Competition begins at 2 p.m. September 19, 2020, and registration is open now. There is a $10 fee per participant, ($20 per team). Prizes will be awarded to the 1st and 2nd place finishers in each division.

Full Rocket League Tournament Series Schedule for 2020:

- Saturday, September 19 at 2 p.m. CDT
- Saturday, October 17 at 2 p.m. CDT
- Saturday, November 14 at 2 p.m. CDT
- Saturday, December 19 at 2 p.m. CDT

Pre-registration is required. Please visit www.thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov/signupforfun for registration information.

For additional information or questions, please call The Recreation Center at Bear Branch at 281-210-3950 or email recreation@thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov.

The Woodlands Township launches the new Rocket League eSports tournament for gamers of all abilities beginning Saturday, September 19, 2020. Pre-registration is required and information is available online at www.thewoodlandstownship-tx.gov/signupforfun.