Results

The Township contracts with the counties for election services in their respective portions of The Woodlands. Each county will post their results on Election Night in accordance with their own standard procedures, which may include partial results while the precinct-by-precinct count is being completed. The County Election websites are www.MontgomeryVotes.org and www.HarrisVotes.org. All results are unofficial until the Township election is canvassed at The Woodlands Township Board of Directors meeting which could take place, at the earliest, late next week.

The Woodlands Township's website (www.thewoodlandstownship-tx.gov) will include unofficial results from the 2021 Incorporation and Board of Directors Elections. The Township Election unofficial results, which do not include provisional votes, are expected to be posted Tuesday night, November 2, 2021, once the full unofficial results for all Township precincts have been posted by both the Montgomery County and Harris County election offices. The link to these consolidated results will also be posted in the election section of the website and a press release will be posted on the homepage.

Staff will be monitoring the County Election sites until 11 p.m. on Election Night in order to consolidate the unofficial results; however, in the event that all Township precinct returns are not available by 11 p.m., staff will post the consolidated unofficial results and the press release on the morning of Wednesday, November 3, 2021.
