Texas TreeVentures resumes off-season hours, hosts special events for fall

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (August 16, 2023) – Texas TreeVentures, The Woodlands Township’s aerial adventure course, kicks off the fall special events season next month along with recently resuming off-season hours and availability.

With nearly 100 elements on the course, Texas TreeVentures offers a unique experience for a wide range of ages and abilities. The 2023 expansion added 24 new elements, including one multi-level element, providing even more fun and challenging options for climbers.

Following the local school district calendars, Texas TreeVentures has resumed off-season availability. Climbs are available to book online Friday through Sunday each weekend and all school holidays including Labor Day (September 4, 2023), Indigenous People’s Day (October 9, 2023) and during Thanksgiving Break (November 21-25, 2023; closed on Thanksgiving Day).

Texas TreeVentures also offers special events throughout the fall season. Reservations are required and can be made online at www.texastreeventures.com. Events do sell out; participants are encouraged to register early. Please note, all children (ages 6 – 12) require an adult (18+) to climb with them one-on-one. The purchase of a ticket is required for all Adult Supervisor climbers.

Please note, session times may vary for the special events listed below. Please check the website for additional details and registration at www.texastreeventures.com.
