Summer soccer programs offered through The Woodlands Township Recreation Center

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (June 13, 2013) –The Woodlands Township Recreation Center is offering many different soccer programs for children this summer. The programs are appropriate for participants from ages 2 to 18 and cover most skill levels. Programs include:

Challenger Soccer Academy offers First Kicks Camp for three-year-olds, Mini-Soccer Camp for four- and five-year-olds and half- and full-day camps for those ages 6 to 16. All camps are held June 10 – 14, 2013.

Soccer-N-Splash, offered June 24 – 28, 2013, is taught by international and national coaches who work full-time with competitive select club teams, recreational programs and individuals. Younger players learn soccer through fun activities teaching athletic motor skills and game fundamentals.

Rush Summer Soccer Camp allows players to work on technical fundamentals and get a tactical understanding for soccer. The camp, held from June 17 – 20, 2013, covers individual ball skills, small-sided competitions and a world cup tournament.

Texas Soccer Academy includes programs for younger Academy Level players up to Division 1/Premier Level players. Players continue to find this camp physically, technically and tactically challenging. Classes are held July 8 – 12, 2013, and include morning, evening, goalkeeper and TSA Junior sessions.

U.K. International Soccer Camp is great for recreational and developmental players. Age-group curriculum focuses on fun, skill development and safety. International coaches are trained in games and skills for all ages. Classes for Fun in the Sun, Skills 'n Thrills and Compete With Your Feet are scheduled for July 22 – August 2, 2013. The Goalies Clinic and Strikers Clinic are set for August 3, 2013.
