Water Supply and Conservation Symposium scheduled for April 18

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (April 10, 2015) As part of a continuing effort to conserve the local water supply, The Woodlands Township invites residents to the Montgomery County Water Supply and Conservation Symposium focusing on Facing the Change: Quality, Quantity and Source of our Water Supply. Local and state water experts will provide presentations and opportunities for discussion on various topics such as Texas climate and legislation, groundwater and surface water resources and the most current updates on the local water supply.

The water symposium will be held at The Woodlands Township Board Chambers, located at 2801 Technology Forest Boulevard on April 18, 2015, from 9 a.m. to noon. Registration is now open for this free event. Please visit www.thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov/waterconservation for more information, or call The Woodlands Township Environmental Services Department at 281-210-3800.
