Township to offer free classes to assist in water conservation

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (May 26, 2015) – Interested in learning new tools and techniques that will help you to conserve water in your landscape? The Woodlands Township will offer free Rainwater Harvesting and Drip Irrigation classes this summer on May 30, June 27 and July 25, 2015, from 9 a.m. to noon. Attend any of these classes and start conserving water today!

Delivered through a step-by-step, hands-on approach, Rainwater Harvesting Specialist Mike Mendeck and Irrigation Specialist Jim Bundscho, both from Montgomery County Master Gardeners, will walk you through the basics of building and installing your own rainwater harvesting and drip irrigation systems. Due to limited space, reservations are required for the free class.

For more information and reservations, please visit www.thewoodlandstownship-tx.gov/waterconservation or contact The Woodlands Township Environmental Services Department at 281-210-3800.
