The Woodlands Township plans 2016 spring recreational events

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (February 22, 2016) – The Woodlands once again will be the place for fun, family-friendly entertainment throughout Spring 2016 with a full lineup of free concerts, festivals and the annual TWFG Muddy Trails Bash, all produced by The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation Department.

“These events have become synonymous with The Woodlands. Over the years these events have contributed to making The Woodlands a family-friendly community,” noted Township Director of Parks and Recreation Chris Nunes.

Please note, all events and dates are weather permitting and subject to change.

Spring Series of Concert in the Park at Northshore Park

Round out your week with a relaxing evening of live music Sundays, March 6 – 20 and April 3 – 17, 2016, at one of The Woodlands’ most scenic parks. Taking place from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. each night, Concert in the Park at Northshore Park has been a community tradition since 1984, presenting a variety of local and regional entertainment with family-friendly activities during select concert dates.

Spring Series of Live at Night at Waterway Square

Live at Night returns to Waterway Square this spring featuring live, outdoor music at sunset as presented by local and regional artists. With the Fountains at Waterway Square as a backdrop, Live at Night is one of the most popular live music series in the area. The spring edition of the Live at Night concert series will take place Saturdays, March 12 – April 30, 2016 from 6 to 8 p.m.

Arts in the Park Featuring Teen Talent Show

Teens between the ages of 13 and 18 will be showcasing their talents in singing, dancing, comedy, magic, acting and more at the Arts in the Park celebration from 2 to 6 p.m. on Saturday, March 12, 2016, at Rob Fleming Park. The Teen Talent Show is an addition to the popular Arts in the Park event that features local artists selling their original artwork, a Kids’ Zone and live performances for the whole family to enjoy. Concessions will be available for purchase from Food Trucks, featuring a variety of cuisines.

TWFG Muddy Trails Bash

Hit the trails at the 9th Annual TWFG Muddy Trails Bash on Saturday, April 2, 2016. Courses will wind through the beautiful George Mitchell Nature Preserve, featuring a chip-timed 5K and 10K trail run, 2K-9 Fun Run for you and your dog and the Little Muddy Kids' One-Mile Fun Run. The event culminates with a festive Post-Race Party at Rob Fleming Park including live zydeco music, the Muddy Bowl Crawfish Cook-Off, children's activities, crawfish plates and more. Register for the races and download the Muddy Bowl Crawfish Cook-Off application online at www.thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov/races.

Memorial Day Weekend in The Woodlands

Celebrate Memorial Day Weekend with live music, children's activities and more at Town Green Park on Saturday, May 28, 2016, and Sunday, May 29, 2016, from 6 to 9 p.m. This community-wide celebration will pay tribute to all military service men and women who have lost their lives while serving the United States. A spectacular fireworks show will light up the night sky both days beginning at 8:55 p.m., weather permitting.
