Liberty Mutual Insurance signs on as sponsor for 2010 programs

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (March 31, 2010) – The Woodlands Township is pleased to announce that Liberty Mutual Insurance, one of the leading insurance providers in the nation, has signed on to support numerous programs produced by The Woodlands Township in 2010.

Liberty Mutual Insurance will be involved with Concerts in the Park, Arts in the Park, the Muddy Trails Bash, CB&I TRI, 10 For Texas, Touch a Truck and The Haunting/Carnival.

“Supporting enjoyable and healthy programs with The Woodlands Township shows Liberty Mutual’s attitude in forging a strategic alliance with parks, recreation and fitness in our community,” said Chris Nunes, director of Parks and Recreation for the Township.

“Liberty Mutual has committed $13,500 for these programs and is proud to contribute time, energy and resources in the community where we live and conduct business,” said Jeremy Hohn, branch manager, with Liberty Mutual.

Through these programs, Liberty Mutual Insurance has been named the presenting sponsor of Arts in the Park and stage sponsor of Concerts in the Park. In conjunction with the Muddy Trails 5K/10K, CB&I TRI-The Woodlands and 10 For Texas, Liberty Mutual will host “Mutual Mondays” to help raise food for the Interfaith Food Pantry. Anyone interested in registering during Mutual Mondays must do so at the Liberty Mutual Woodlands location. In order to receive the event discount an individual must bring five canned food items during Mutual Mondays. Child I.D. kits will be provided at various programs, along with trick-or-treat bags and “Firefighters Are My Friend” give-a-ways.

Through its various companies, Liberty Mutual offers a full line of insurance products for the entire family. They include auto, home and life, as well as personal liability insurance. Since 1912, Liberty Mutual has committed to providing broad, useful and competitively-priced insurance products and services to meet their customers’ ever-changing needs. For more information on Liberty Mutual products, please visit Jeremy Hohn and his staff at The Woodlands location, or call 281-364-1090. Liberty Mutual Insurance, The Woodlands branch, is located at 3000 Research Forest Drive (Research Forest Drive and New Trails Drive).
