Township seeking volunteers for upcoming seasonal events

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (September 18, 2018) – The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation Department is hosting numerous events throughout the fall and winter months, requiring the help of many volunteers. These events are a great opportunity to get involved with the community while helping to make Township programs a success.

Upcoming volunteer opportunities:

- Creekside Camp-Out: October 6-7, 2018; December 1-2, 2018
- The Haunted Trail “The Psycho Path”: Fridays and Saturdays in October starting on October 12, 2018
- Memorial Hermann 10 for Texas: October 13, 2018
- Holiday Events: Various Dates
- Daddy Daughter Dinner Dance: February 16, 2019

The Haunted Trail is held at Bear Branch Park on Fridays and Saturdays in October, beginning on Friday, October 12, 2018, and ending on Saturday, October 27, 2018. Volunteer positions include scary scene actors, trail tour guides and survey takers.

Additional volunteer opportunities include Creekside Camp-Out, a family camping experience at The Recreation Center at Rob Fleming Park, the Memorial Hermann 10 for Texas race series, holiday events and the Daddy Daughter Dinner Dance.

For more information about volunteering for any of these events, please contact The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation at recreation@thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov, or call The Recreation Center at Bear Branch Park at 281-210-3950 or The Recreation Center at Rob Fleming Park at 281-516-7348.
