Vendor applications now being accepted for Arts in the Park

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (January 14, 2020) – Vendor applications are now being accepted for the Spring Arts in the Park event scheduled to take place on Saturday, March 14, 2020, at Rob Fleming Park, from 2 to 6 p.m. A limited number of food vendor spaces will be available and the vendor fee is $75 each. Booth spaces for artists are limited and the vendor fee is $50 each.

This family-friendly event is free to the public. Local artists will be provided space to exhibit their art, whether it's woodwork, paintings, crafts or jewelry; all kinds of art are welcome to apply.

The Youth Art Contest will also take place at this event. Submissions will be on display and winners of each category will be recognized on stage during the festival. Live entertainment, a KidZone with inflatables and crafts and much more help to make this a great way to spend a spring afternoon. This event attracts more than 1,500 attendees who visit vendors and enjoy an afternoon of stage performances.

For more information or to complete an application, please visit <http://www.thewoodlandstownship-tx.gov/artsinthepark> or call the Township Parks and Recreation Department at 281-210-3800.
