Unofficial election results for Residential Design Review Committees and Village Associations

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (February 15, 2020) – Unofficial results for The Woodlands Township Residential Design Review Committee and Village Association elections are now posted on the Township’s website.

Voting was held for contested positions on the Cochran’s Crossing Residential Design Review Committee, Creekside Park Residential Design Review Committee, Grogan’s Mill Residential Design Review Committee, Grogan’s Mill Village Association, Panther Creek Residential Design Review Committee, and the Sterling Ridge Residential Design Review Committee. Voting was open to residents of The Woodlands and property owners age 18 and older in the above named villages.

ELECTION RESULTS

Residential Design Review Committee members are representatives who review requests for improvements to residential properties in order to protect the aesthetic character of the residential areas in The Woodlands. Each village has its own committee.

Village Associations are grassroots organizations that provide civic and social opportunities for residents. Village Association representatives meet regularly to discuss community and village issues, gain village input and plan village programs and events. They are separate and independent of The Woodlands Township.

The Woodlands Township Board of Directors election will be held in November 2020. More information can be found on the Township website.
