

Creating Habitat in The Garden and Community

Saturday, February 2, 2019

8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

- 8:30 Welcome
- 8:40 Why Home and Community Habitats Matter
Kelly Norrid, Texas Parks & Wildlife, presents on habitat loss, fragmentation, and the effects on wildlife in our area
- 9:30 The Monarch Story
Rebeca Quinonez-Pinon, National Wildlife Federation, shares a bit about what makes this species so special, the challenges it faces and national efforts to help conserve it
- 10:15 break
- 10:30 Plant for Pollinators
Kendall Clark, Environmental Education Specialist at The Woodlands Township, introduces the new Township program and provides tips and guidelines for creating a pollinator garden
- 11:15 Create a Backyard Bird Oasis
Diana Foss, Texas Parks & Wildlife, introduces us to the birds that frequent our area and how we can help them thrive
- Noon break
- 12:15 Balancing Act
Megan McNairn, Environmental Education Specialist at The Woodlands Township, shares a framework for maintaining your new oasis using both observation and action.
- 1:00 program concludes

Be sure to visit the info tables for more information and resources.

The Woodlands Township thanks its partners Texas Parks & Wildlife and National Wildlife Federation.

