RESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS FEBRUARY 2026

OPTIONAL CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRE

The Woodlands Village Association Presidents request that candidates filing for Village Association positions answer the following questions. Answers to these questions are not required, but will be used in voter education by the Village Association. The questions allow candidates to introduce themselves to the voters in their villages. Responses to these questions become public records, and each candidate's answers will be provided to the respective Village President. In addition, after receiving each candidate's information, the respective Village Association can extend an invitation to their meeting(s) or request additional information.

Please note that this questionnaire may be submitted with your filing form. Please also note that providing answers to the questions below is OPTIONAL, and that any information provided on the questionnaire could be provided to the public and could possibly be seen and published by local news media. You may attach an additional sheet if needed.

- 1) How long have you lived in the Woodlands, and why do you want to be on the Village Association Board?
- 2) Do you have other volunteer experience? If so, please share.
- 3) This is a volunteer position that requires a time commitment of several hours per month. What ideas do you have to improve our service to the residents of our village?
